

Aarnout Loudon

Date of birth: 10 December 1936

Nationality: Dutch

Mr Loudon has proven his merits for the bank since 1994, firstly as a member and since 1996 also as the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. Moreover, his broad experience as a former Chairman of the Board of Management and as Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Akzo Nobel N.V. are of great value. Also of value are his directorships and advisory functions with various leading institutions and his political office as a former member of the First Chamber of the Dutch Parliament.

Joined Akzo N.V. in 1969 after a career at the Bank Mees & Hope dating from 1964. In 1972, Mr Loudon was appointed Director Financial Affairs, Director Finance and Accounting at Akzo Coatings France S.A. In 1975 he was made President of Akzo Limitada in Brazil, followed by an appointment to the Managing Board of Akzo N.V. in 1977. He was appointed Chairman in 1982.

In the period 1995 to 1999 was a member of the First Chamber of the Dutch Parliament.

Directorships and advisory roles:

- Chairman Supervisory Board Akzo Nobel N.V.
- Member Supervisory Board Royal Dutch Petroleum Company
- Chairman Board Trust Office Preference Shares Buhrmann
- Member International Council Allianz Aktiengesellschaft, München
- International Counsellor The Conference Board, N.Y.

Education:

- Law degree, Utrecht University